

Remember they might go from the end of one line to the beginning of the next line, which caught us out on the last one we couldn't find.

Building Up Date Graham spoke to Abacus Glazing yesterday and they are coming to check measurements etc. later this week for all the new windows and door.

The heaters for the small hall have been ordered and we are waiting to hear when they are being delivered.

We need to chase the Hearing Loop people as he hasn't replied to our last e mail.

Scout Post We are again doing this as a fund raiser. Please sign up on the list on the fund raising board or let Anita know if you can help with the delivery and encourage your friends and family to post their cards with us for only 30p each. See full details in the Parish Magazine. Or collect a list of villages covered from the back porch or I can e mail you a copy if you let me know you want one.

Use of the building The Village Singers have now changed from Tuesday evenings back to Monday evenings.

Sally who has been using the hall for her Yoga on Thursdays is now also going to use it on a Wednesday evening. She has also asked to leave her mats etc in Room 1 overnight to save her taking them home overnight.

Shoe Boxes See Parish Magazine or House of Opportunity website for full details. But if you are filling a box or have bought some items to top up shoe boxes please let us have them by Monday 13th November or Monday 20th. We always run out of bars of soap, toothpaste and sweets if you are not sure what to buy, or can't fill a whole box.

Don't Forget Cards for Sale in back porch
Please let us have any news to pass on to the rest of the church family (Check person is happy for us to publish)

A puzzle for you Last week we went on the last caravan rally of the year and were given this puzzle to do and thought you might like to see if you can find the 30 books of the bible. If you get stuck ask us for the answers. There are 30 books of the Bible in this paragraph. Can you find them? This is a most remarkable puzzle. It was found by a gentleman in an airplane seat pocket, on a flight from Los Angeles to Honolulu, keeping him occupied for hours. He enjoyed it so much, he passed it on to some friends. One friend from Illinois worked on this while fishing from his john boat. Another friend studied it while playing his banjo. Elaine Taylor, a columnist friend, was so intrigued by it she mentioned it in her weekly newspaper column. Another friend judges the job of solving this puzzle so involving, she brews a cup of tea to help her nerves. There will be some names that are really easy to spot. That's a fact. Some people, however, will soon find themselves in a jam, especially since the book names are not necessarily capitalized. Truthfully, from answers we get, we are forced to admit it usually takes a minister or a scholar to see some of them at the worst. Research has shown that something in our genes is responsible for the difficulty we have in seeing the books in this paragraph. During a recent fund raising event, which featured this puzzle, the Alpha Delta Phi lemonade booth set a new record. The local paper, The Chronicle, surveyed over 200 patrons who reported that this puzzle was one of the most difficult they had ever seen. As Daniel Humana humbly puts it, "The books are all right here in plain view hidden from sight." Those able to find all of them will hear great lamentations from those who have to be shown. One revelation that may help is that books like Timothy and Samuel may occur without their numbers. Also, keep in mind, that punctuation and spaces in the middle are normal. A chipper attitude will help you compete really well against those who claim to know the answers. Remember, there is no need for a mad exodus; there really are 30 books of the Bible lurking somewhere in this paragraph waiting to be found. God Bless
